GUIDE SYMBOLS

Throughout this book you will find certain abbreviations or entries entered after names and other information. By way of explanation, is this list of abbreviations and their meaning.

- (FB).....FAMILY BIBLE entry relating to birth, death and sometimes marriage.
- (TS).....TOMBSTONE entry relating to birth date, death date of the individual.
- (&c).....Means "and so on.."
- (M.L.#00).....The MARRIAGE LICENSE number of the license issued to the couple getting married. I have researched a good number of marriages and the full entries in my research notes will show the complete date of application, marriage date, the date of return of the license to the Register of Deeds or Clerk of Court, along with a file number if that office used file numbers for identification.
- (MARR. REG.).....The MARRIAGE REGISTER BOOK in the records department of the office issuing the license. This also serves as an index and it generally gives the names, ages, race, sex and town where they were from, along with the names of the parents, husband's occupation and witnesses.
- (MB).....MARRIAGE BOND. This instrument served the same purpose as a marriage license to us. However they served as a bond in the marriage to protect the children born in the marriage, should it have failed in olden times and whoever signed the marriage bond as the surety guaranteed the support of the children, should the marriage fail. It served a purpose almost like our welfare system these days. Marriage Bonds ceased to be issued in the late 1860s and marriage licenses issued.
- # # #.....Indicates the end of an article used from a newspaper, or book or other source.
- ca. ....Relates to a date approximate to the date entered. In other words when an exact date is not entered, facts taken about the entry are deduced to come up with an approximate, (not exact) date or time the event probably occurred.
- (CENSUS).....Indicates information from an Official Census Record.
- (BOOK, PAGE,).....Indicates reference source for Death, Birth, Marriage record or other record within that paragraph.
- (OBIT).....Information in part or in whole taken from an obituary.
- (nmn).....Indicates that the person has No Middle Name.
- (do do).....Indicates "same as above," particularly used by writers in old documents and records.
- (DAR).....Indicates a membership in the Daughters of The American Revolution where that information was listed in support of the applicant's application for membership in the DAR
- (GOODSPEED..) Goodspeed Publishing Co. of Nashville, Tn. that did several Tennessee County histories in the 1880's.
- #1#.....Indicates the code number of contributor of photo(s).
- (LCHS).....Laurel County Historical Society, London, Kentucky.
- (Twp.).....Township.
- (Months).....JAN - January      MAY - May      SEP - September
FEB - February      JUN - June      OCT - October
MAR - March      JUL - July      NOV - November
APR - April      AUG - August      DEC - December

GUIDE SYMBOLS

In this book, should you find an error in spelling, you may immediately chalk it up to my fingers. For they have typed each and every single character that you read...and if you do find an error I do not claim under any circumstances to be a scholar of the English language and it's correct use for punctuation, so please accept my humble effort as my best effort to use the proper words and punctuation in the sense they are written.

In the case of any error, either spelling, punctuation or otherwise, I am truly sorry, for I have read, re-read, edited, re-edited, proofed, re-proofed and have asked some family members to check data and spelling in some chapters, (but they should not be responsible, in any event,) for the work is mine. In the case of data that is incorrect, I do apologize, for I have gathered information from family members, Family Bibles, newspapers, obituaries, cemeteries, church records, public records, (and in some cases the public records were wrong, according to some family members,) and other sources, and in the case of an error, I do not know how to correct it, but hopefully sometime in the future, an update to this work can be done.

I have had a few folks to ask about "family skeletons." Well, I have not really found or run across much to write about and if there truly are "family skeletons," I would think they are for the most part, a part of public records or recorded events in newspapers or other public sources and it is solely my choice to leave them out. Public records used herein stand on their own and are available for publication by anyone at any time. It is not my choice or my intent by any means to embarrass any person, group or organization mentioned herein and I hope the reader will not take it as such.

ABOUT THE SURNAME INDEX

I wish to say a few words about the surname index and the method used in indexing and identifying people throughout the book.

I have purposely indexed only one person who has a SR. with his name and that is JOSEPH SCALES, SR. He is identified in this manner due to his status only. I found indexing very confusing when a person is born with one name and then tags on SR. after a particular male son is born. The situation creates two persons in indexing so I have purposely left out all SR's. These situations identify themselves as the father is always identified with his full birth name and of course each child is also identified in this manner with the full name of the child's father and the FULL MAIDEN NAME OF THE CHILD'S MOTHER in every case in this genealogy. You will find from time to time where a lady is identified with her MARRIED NAME, but this occurs mostly where photographs are involved and a few other instances. So please remember to check the index for the female side of our families with their birth name and also their married name, should they have been referred to by their married name in some instances.

DEDICATION

A WALK THROUGH THE TWENTIETH CENTURY IS DEDICATED TO THE GRAND-CHILDREN OF OUR PRESENT DAY FAMILIES,.....

.....Who might one day want to take a look back at their roots and where they began, like I did. The search is far from over, for some families could not be found or communicated with or failed to communicate back. Probably only a few will care from time to time as I have found some who expressed "Well, I really don't care..." But in case our grandchildren's children or perhaps their own grandchildren might just say to themselves, like I did, "Where did I come from and who is really in my family?" Hopefully they will not have far to look and maybe this book will be available to them as a place to start, for much more can be written....but I leave that to another generation.

Also with much love and affection to:

MRS. MARY ELIZABETH SCALES HALL, my Aunt, who died in May of 1989. She lived in Pfafftown, NC, and had been like a mother to me as I looked backward into my roots.

MR. CLIFFORD WAYNE HALL, my Uncle, who also died within a few hours of the burial of my Aunt MARY in May of 1989. Uncle CLIFFORD had a great spirit and a kindred love for his fellow man. If we have ever had a "WILL ROGERS" in the families, it was Uncle CLIFFORD, for I think he never met a person he didn't like.

MR. KENNETH SEBASTON SCALES, one of my long lost cousins whom I have found to be a loving father, grandfather, uncle, brother and great friend to whoever he might meet in life!

MRS. MARGARET PAULINE SCALES ROBERTS BROWN, for her courage in her undertaking of her roots search years ago and for her inspiration to me to continue.

EMORY OLIVIA DAVIS, my Granddaughter, because she happens to be my pride and joy!! And someday, I hope follows her "Paw Paw's" zeal to know her kin as I have wanted to.

and

MRS. MAE ELIZABETH WALL SCALES, my wife, who without her cooperation in taking over all my duties at home and allowing me to use virtually every spare moment in this new found quest, once I got started never one time said "When are you going to quit that and get something done around here?" She has patiently mowed and raked the yard, shoveled the snow, carried out the trash, and just did everything that I should have been doing, while I was on the phone, writing letters, reading, searching records at home and away from home, (even on vacations,) tramping through briars and brambles and cow pastures on week ends when we could have been sitting by a pool or enjoying ourselves in some other way. Going here and going there and finally for all the hours of time on the computer to get this all together. MY VERY BEST

"THANK YOU DARLING!"

GOES TO HER.

PREFACE

I truly hope the reader of this book will better understand and appreciate the station in life that they presently occupy by taking a look back to find out where we came from and who we were in past times and who our kinsmen of today are. Our roots of today are still our roots of yesteryear as we ply through the marvelous age that we now live in and perhaps by looking backward, the reader will appreciate his present status in life even more.

THUNDERSTRUCK!

This quest began as a result of my not really knowing my ancestors or who I was related to and I was just "THUNDERSTRUCK" to know that people that I had gone to church with for about 25 years and people that I had gone to school with were related to me and I did not realize or know it.

Many years ago, I had an attitude that is still prevalent today in the different families and that attitude is "Well, I really don't care, or care to know..." but to discover these relatives and get to know them has truly been one of the blessings in my life. I now know from whence we came, (or a pretty good idea of it,) and have a greater respect for our families and family members..otherwise, I would probably just keep plodding along through life without knowing of these super marvelous relatives that we are all related to as parents, grandparents, brothers, sisters, aunts, uncles, cousins, grandchildren, great grandchildren and great great grandchildren, sons and daughters, in-laws and step family members.

Along the way, I have cherished times of the people I have met and have gotten to know better and wished I had gotten to know those who have gone on. I know in each family there are pleasant and cherished memories just waiting to be shared with all of us.

In this search, it appeared to me that the female side of a great number of our families tend to become "lost in history" once they have married and merged into other families. Lest we forget, we cannot do without the ladies in these families, for they have been the ones to nurture us along through life. Just because a daughter or sister marries is no reason at all that they sort of drop from the families, (as I noted in a good number of them,) and so I have made a special effort to not lose any lady in any family in all of this research.

I feel that sometime in the near future, records that are now open to the public may be closed. Probably not by reason of confidentiality, but out of the concern for the almighty dollar that government now seems to place on the cost of administering the record to the availability of the average citizen. Hence I believe that with "closed records" or fees that will be so exorbitant to obtain the record will cause hardship to the searcher, is the reason for wanting to publish this record. And of course I want us to know one another as kinsmen!

Also in our sister states of Virginia and South Carolina, one must write to the state capitals in order to find some records and the fee is not small for they do charge for each record searched. Whereas, in North Carolina, we still have the availability of the local courthouse in 97% of the counties that I know of in regard to Birth, Death, Marriage, Will and land records, along with Census records are the most vital records that a beginner will want to know about. The best method is to visit these places yourself and examine and search the records yourself.

I have searched records in Forsyth, Stokes, Rockingham, Guilford, Davie, Rowan, Mecklenburg, Cabarrus, Stanly, Cumberland, Orange, Wake, Iredell, Surry, Yadkin, Hoke, Richmond, Anson, Union, Burke, Cleveland, McDowell, Buncombe, Greene, Lee, Pitt, Harnett, Granville, Caswell, Davidson, Duplin, Hoke, Gaston, Randolph and other counties. I have searched counties in Virginia and South Carolina and out of all these searches, compared to what I have seen in other states, North Carolina is a treasure house. You will find 90% of our public officials always willing to help and for that I was grateful.

Two great sources for genealogy information within our state are The North Carolina State Archives in Raleigh, NC, North Carolina's own natural treasure storehouse, available to every citizen from everywhere. I must also mention your very own local library, for information stored there is a great source that a beginner never even thinks of looking into, but once there, you will find most librarians in charge of historical records always willing to help!

Along the way you will find folks in our families who served in the different branches of the armed services, both in war times and peace and I must add these were not all men, as you will note a number of our ladies who served! They served from the Revolutionary War, right up to today. Some gave their lives in the service of our country and we should be proud of all of them.

You will also find along the way, farmers, merchants, ministers, doctors, lawyers and even an indian chief and his daughter who was a princess in her station in life at the time. You will find public servants, a Governor, Representatives, local law enforcement officers, Registers of Deeds, Clerks of Court, Magistrates and other "family" members who worked for or were associated with federal, state and local governments.

You will find also, carpenters, salesmen, truckers, inventors, dancers, people in management, designers, medical technicians and people in other allied medical fields, jacks of all trades and a good many more not set out herein...but we must make note of one special person throughout all this quest and that person is the "Homemaker," for without her, we would all be meaningless!

Finally, I have copies of a good number of birth, marriage, death and other records such as newspaper clippings of obituaries and will be happy to share these with you on request. I will also do Family Trees upon request and time permitting. I am also planning one large Family Tree covering all the families and hope to have this done and available sometime in 1990 along with a Birthday Calendar listing every person in all these families, whether living or deceased.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

This book could not have come to this point in it's fruition without the kindness, caring, sharing of information, knowledge, kindred spirit, initiative, communication and help of a great number of people, who through their co-operative assistance in gathering information that included public records, private family mementos, family records, family memories and photographs helped make this possible.

I truly wish I could enumerate each and everyone of you who have helped with this endeavor. However, I do wish to acknowledge the following people for their guiding assistance and input and for this, I am most grateful.

MRS. LINDA CARDWELL VERNON of Stoneville, North Carolina, who really got me started into genealogy and it's importance to families as to where they came from, who they were and are now and how their roots began. Since March of 1984, she has been an unending source for vital questions which usually answered the questions: What or which way am I going next? Where can I find? She is an expert genealogist on our family roots in North Carolina, and I recommend her to any person, anywhere in search of their family roots and history. She is a 5th Great Granddaughter of JOSEPH SCALES, SR.

MRS. MARGARET PAULINE SCALES ROBERTS BROWN, of Winston-Salem, NC, who really began a quest of her own years ago, and has helped with much information on our local area families.

MRS. RUTH SCOTT POINDEXTER, of East Bend, NC, who has a super attitude and a caring nature about her that is just tops! She has contributed much toward information, photographs and knowledge in family history for the JOHN WILLIAM PLEDGE BAKER family. She is a modest person, not wishing to take much credit for her efforts, but she deserves high words of praise....and like my grandmother's cookie treats when we visited her, I shall always remember RUTH in an extra special way as she always seemed to have a cake or home fried apple pies on hand when we got together!

MRS. EUNICE KNIGHT WALL SHORTER, of Phenix, Va., for her kindness and always being a willing person to share information that she has collected through the years in her research of family roots, particularly for the WALL families. EUNICE has a great caring interest for her family and relatives.

MS. ANNE LURA HAWKINS WYLLIE, of Martinsville, Va., for her help and assistance with the HAWKINS families and family photos.

MR. and MRS. CLAUDE CECIL AMOS of Sandy Ridge, NC, and their daughters, BETTY LEA AMOS STEVENS and SHEILA ANN AMOS COLLINS for their many kindnesses and their extra assistance in gathering needed information from families in their area.

MRS. VIRGINIA PAULINE EDENS HARRIS of Rose Hill, Virginia who was just a tremendous help in the gathering of family information for the family of DR. NATHANIEL MACON SCALES and his wife, MELVINA MAGEE SCALES.

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

MS. JULIA ANN DOUGLAS CHOPLIN, of East Bend, NC, for her special help in reproducing a number of photographs.

Many thanks are expressed for the kindness and co-operation of VERNON DAVIS WALL and his wife, REBECCA LOUISE SPAINHOUR WALL of Tobaccoville, NC, who shared with us photographs from a number of different families and were valuable in making some family contacts.

MISS JULIA COURTS of Winston-Salem, NC, a niece of MOLLY SUE BURTON SCALES, for her insight and encouragement to me through these "research years," to know our family heritage and how meaningful all our families can be to each of us.

To the Registers of Deeds of Stokes and Rockingham Counties, North Carolina, who, no matter how busy they were, when you as an ordinary citizen asked, they were always ready to help you find your way. Other records offices were good, but these stand out in my memory as being special for their courtesy and kindness in assisting citizens who call on them.

THE FIRST FORSYTH COUNTY COURTHOUSE

Many times my mind has pictured NATHANIEL SCALES being in this building while serving as a Juror or conducting his business. The Courthouse Square was the hearbeat of the county. The photo hangs in the office of the Clerk of Superior Court in Forsyth County, NC. Many thanks to the Clerk, FRANCES PARKER STOREY for allowing me to copy the photo for inclusion. #1#

THE SCALES IN ENGLAND

WILLIAM I (1027 or 1028-1087) King of England, surnamed The Conqueror was the bastard son of ROBERT The Devil, Duke of Normandy and ARLETTA, the daughter of a tanner at Falaise. Having no legitimate son, HENRY induced the Norman Barons to acknowledge WILLIAM as his successor. They kept their promise when ROBERT died on a pilgrimage to Jerusalem in 1035, though WILLIAM was then but a mere boy. Intelligent and ambitious, he became a great leader in France in war and government. He coveted the English crown and strengthened his claim to the throne by marrying MATILDA, a daughter of BALDWIN V Of Flanders who traced her descent in the female line from ALFRED THE GREAT of England.

- 1051- WILLIAM visited England, and probably received from his kinsman, EDWARD The Confessor, a promise of the English succession.
- 1064- The accidental visit of HAROLD to the Norman Court added another link to WILLIAM'S connection. It seems clear that the Earl made a promise to support the claims of WILLIAM upon the English succession. HAROLD failed to keep his promise when EDWARD died two years later and HAROLD was crowned.
- 1066- WILLIAM and his army invaded England and defeated the English at Hastings on October 14, 1066. On Christmas day he was crowned at Westminster. (see ENCYCLOPEDIA BRITANNICA.) WILLIAM'S forces consisted of spearmen, archers and men trained in scaling walls (Escaliers). HARDWIN de SCALES was one of his escaliers. He had led an attack on a besieged city. WILLIAM rewarded him by granting him land in York, Lancaster, Essex and Hereford Counties in Norfolk. WILLIAM had taken over all the lands and had made grants to all his loyal followers. In that way he could be sure of their loyalty in the future should there be a need of call to arms.
- 1086- HARDWIN died, leaving three sons: RICHARD, HUGH and _____. his oldest son left a son _____. ROGER de SCALES, LORD of Middleton, who married MURIEL, daughter of GEOFFREY de LIFE. ROGER founded Blackborrough Abbey.
- 198- ROBERT de SCALES, in County of Suffolk, gave Weatherden Church to bury Abbey. His son ROBERT married MARGERY, daughter of FULK de BEAUFOE. Their son ROBERT married ALICE, daughter of SIR WILLIAM de ROUCESTER, Lord of the Manor of Newsells. His son ROBERT de SCALES, Lord of Newsells in Hertfordshire, distinguished himself in the Scottish wars under King EDWARD I, and as BARON SCALES, was called to Parliament and served as a Lord until 1305. He married ISABELLA, daughter of Sir BURNELL. Their son ROBERT, LORD SCALES, married EGELINA, daughter of SIR HUGH COURTENAY, of the family of Bishop of Courtenay of London. Their son ROBERT, LORD SCALES, married CATHERINE, daughter of ROBERT de UFFERD, Earl of Suffolk. Their son _____.

THE SCALES IN ENGLAND

ROGER, LORD SCALES, married JOAN, daughter of and heir to and of SIR JOHN de NORTHWOODE of Essex. ROBERT, LORD SCALES, their son, married JOAN, daughter of SIR WILLIAM BARDOLPH, who in 1405 with the Earl of Northumberland, lead a revolt against HENRY IV in Wales, SIR WILLIAM was killed. ROBERT'S son ROBERT, LORD SCALES, married EMMA, daughter of SIMON WHALESBURGH.

THOMAS, LORD SCALES was in France at the seige of Orleans. JOAN OF ARC, it's defender, addressed a letter to the Duke of Bedford, LORD SCALES and two other Lords stating that "Thye were to work no more destruction there, but were to come in her company (as she had been instructed directly by God) to the rescue of the Holy Sepulcher from the Turks." The Duke of Bedford's brother was HENRY VI.

The Duke of Bedford, Regent of France, married JACQUETTA of Luxemburg. After his death she married SIR RICHARD WOODVILLE, EARL RIVERS, of Kent. SIR RICHARD'S daughter ELIZABETH married KING EDWARD IV. She was a sister of SIR ANTHONY SCALES. EDWARD IV immediately elevated her family to high positions and made her father, LORD RIVERS, Treasurer and High Constable, and married her brothers and sisters to great nobles and heirs.

ANTHONY, LORD SCALES, was sent by the king to defend the English Channel against a threatened invasion by the French. He was in charge of 6,000 crack archers.

The Duke of Warwick in a plot to put EDWARD IV'S brother on the throne, in their first battle, a force of EDWARD'S was cut to pieces. LORD RIVERS and one of his sons (was he LORD SCALES?) were beheaded. EDWARD put down the revolt and regained his crown. EDWARD IV and ELIZABETH WOODVILLE had a daughter.

She was a niece of ANTHONY, LORD SCALES. On the death of EDWARD IV she went to live with his mother, ELEANOR in Yorkshire.

EDWARD V ascended to the throne at age 13. He was murdered and RICHARD III of York became King. By an act of Parliament all children of EDWARD IV and ELIZABETH (sister of ANTHONY, LORD SCALES) were declared ineligible to succeed to the throne. (Thus any direct heirs with SCALES blood were thrown out.)

HENRY TUDOR (HENRY VII) became King, and in an effort to unite the houses of YORK and LANCASTER, he married ELIZABETH, daughter of EDWARD IV and QUEEN ELIZABETH.

(After seven consecutive BARON SCALES, the Barony was held in abeyance. It may have been from lack of a male heir, or more likely it was because of the War of The Roses between the House of YORK and the House of LANCASTER.)

HENRY VIII, son of HENRY and ELIZABETH (niece of LORD SCALES) was crowned King. His second wife (ANNE BOLEYN--later beheaded) gave birth to a daughter, ELIZABETH.

THE SCALES IN ENGLAND

ELIZABETH became Queen. She was an intelligent and strong willed woman who made England great. Hers was the age of exploration and colonization, learning and commerce. England's great navy and merchant marine were the handiwork of SIR JOHN HAWKINS and SIR FRANCIS DRAKE during ELIZABETH'S long reign. ELIZABETH never married. She was succeeded by JAMES VI of Scotland, and since she left no direct heirs, as far as is known, no sovereign with SCALES blood has sat on the English throne since.

THE SCALES COAT OF ARMS

ARMS - GULES, SIX ESCALLOPS, THREE OVER TWO, OVER ONE AND ONE ARGENT.

CREST - OUT OF DUCAL CORONET ARE A PLUME OF OSTRICH FEATHERS ARGENT.

SHIELD IS RED - THE SIX ESCALLOPS ARE SILVER - THE DUCAL CORONET IS GOLD WITH OSTRICH FEATHERS OF SILVER - RIBBON IS SILVER WITH WORDING "SCALES" - MANTLE IS RED LINED WITH SILVER.

THE SCALES IN NORTH AMERICA

Three brothers, JOHN, THOMAS and WILLIAM SCALES immigrated from Yorkshire to the Colony in Plymouth, Massachusetts.

WILLIAM SCALES lived in Rowley, a part of the Plymouth Colony.

JOHN SCALES was a resident of Rowley.

GEORGE SCALES lived in Isle of Wight County, Virginia.

JOHN SCALES lived in York County, Virginia.

There is a record of a WILLIAM SCALES in Virginia.

According to tradition, two of the Massachusettes SCALES moved with their families to Virginia.

Records show the following SCALES in Virginia Counties:

CAPTAIN JOHN SCALES, Fairfax, Virginia.

JOHN SCALES, Culpepper, Virginia.

FRANCIS SCALES, Halifax, Virginia.

HENRY and JOSEPH SCALES, Pittsylvania County, Virginia

NATHANIEL SCALES, Greenbriar, Virginia.

NATHANIEL SCALES, Louisa, Virginia.

PETER SCALES, Henry County, Virginia.

JOSEPH SCALES purchased 200 Acres of land from ROBERT JONES in Granville County, NC on the Dan River, adjoining lands of COL. WILLIAM BYRD of Virginia. He also owned land in Pittsylvania County, Virginia. His Will, signed in 1773, was probated in Guilford County Court in 1774.

There was much intermarriage in the SCALES families of Virginia and North Carolina - SCALES marrying SCALES.

THE SCALES IN NORTH AMERICA

Many of the early SCALES left Virginia and North Carolina and moved with their families to Tennessee, Mississippi and other southern states.

The reader might wish to refer to A HISTORY OF THE SCALES OF NORTH-EAST MISSISSIPPI by CHARLES MAURICE SCALES of Mississippi. A copy of this soft bound book is in the DAR Library and the Library of Congress in Washington, DC. The book is not complete but is a very good reference on the early SCALES families in North America, and a valuable reference for the SCALES in England and France before the discovery of America. [Your writer has a xerox copy of this publication and he has written to family members mentioned in the book in the town of Corinth, Miss. The mail was returned unclaimed.]

EDEN

The families covered in this book are the families of JOSEPH and MARY SCALES of the area that is now known as Rockingham County, North Carolina. For the record we will refer to him as JOSEPH SCALES, SR.

We shall not even attempt to cover all of the families for there are many. JOSEPH and MARY had fourteen (14) children and we shall follow the particular line of JOHN SCALES. However we will enumerate the children of JOSEPH and MARY and their children and their immediate children in the main family, then branch off to the children of JOHN SCALES and the allied lines in the different families accredited to him. The children's families will fall in the order that we believe to be correct.

JOSEPH SCALES, SR. died by May of 1774 in Guilford County, North Carolina. His will was dated 17 SEP 1773 and proved at the May, 1774 Term of Court, in Guilford County, North Carolina. It is recorded in Will Book A, Page 334 in Guilford County, North Carolina. The original Will is in the North Carolina State Archives in Raleigh, North Carolina and consists of a single very large page.

His wife's name was MARY and she died by August of 1804 in Rockingham County, North Carolina. MARY'S Will is recorded in Book A, Page 10 in Rockingham County, North Carolina, and is dated 7 JUNE 1803. There is no probate date. The Will was proved in open Court at the August 1804 Term of the Rockingham County Court of Pleas and Quarter Sessions and is recorded in the Court minutes of Rockingham County, North Carolina. (at Wentworth, NC.)

It is believed that MARY was a 2nd or 3rd wife of JOSEPH SCALES, SR.

At this point in researching this family it cannot be proved that MARY was a GIBSON. One researcher thought she married a MR. GIBSON and had HENRY GIBSON and later married JOSEPH SCALES and HENRY GIBSON then became known as HENRY SCALES, alias HENRY GIBSON, or could MARY have had HENRY out of wedlock by JOSEPH SCALES, SR., and they later married?

Their marriage date, place of marriage, exact dates of death and place of burial are unknown at this time. Their graves are suspected to be on the plantation on which they lived. One may generally assume that their deaths took place within a year of the recording into the Court minutes of their Wills.

To establish our "WALK" a bit more, is the following newspaper article from THE MESSENGER from Madison, NC, (undated) by MRS. LINDA CARDWELL VERNON of Stoneville, NC, and MR. HASSELL GANN. Your writer considers MRS. LINDA CARDWELL VERNON as perhaps the most knowledgeable person on the genealogy of the SCALES families in North Carolina.

MR. GANN was a well known genealogist also from Madison, NC. He operated Gann Furniture Co. As a stranger, you would find him a most gracious host to you and all persons seeking information on their roots in the Rockingham and Stokes County areas of the state. MR. GANN died 5 SEP 1988 and he will sorely be missed by his community and genealogy associates.

Finding Our Roots

SCALES FAMILY CAME EARLY

By LINDA VERNON and HASSEL GANN

The first SCALES to move into our present day Rockingham County was JOSEPH SCALES, SR. He first appeared in the records in March of 1752 when he bought a 200 acre tract of land from ROBERT JONES, JR., which was located at the confluence of the Ervin (Smith) and Dan Rivers adjoining the lands of COL. WILLIAM BYRD in what is now the City of Eden. This early deed is recorded in Granville County. The same deed is later recorded in Rowan County in 1761. JOSEPH SCALES, SR., also acquired land on Matrimony Creek and Beaver Island Creek in what is now Rockingham County and also 1,075 acres in Pittsylvania County, Virginia which he purchased in November of 1770 from PETER PERKINS. This land was on both sides of Cascade Creek and later became part of Henry County.

In his will recorded in Guilford County in 1774 he named his wife MARY and fourteen children. Since his wife outlived him by 29 years it is assumed that she was a second wife. She left a will dated 7 JUNE 1803 which is recorded at the local courthouse.

There were eight sons in this family and records have been found that all of them served in the American Revolutionary War or gave supplies to further the course of freedom. At the death of JOSEPH SCALES SR. in 1774 his sons JOSEPH JR. and ROBERT received the Cascade, Virginia land. ROBERT died apparently single, in 1781 as his mother MARY was appointed Administrator. JOSEPH JR. (1750-1796) married ANNE PERKINS (1752-1829), daughter of NICHOLAS PERKINS and wife BETHENIA HARDEN. This couple continued to live at their "Thornfield" Plantation on the Cascade Creek until their death where they had raised 10 children. While several of their children migrated to Tennessee and settled in Hawkins, Davidson and Williamson Counties, the Cascade tract in Virginia is still owned by SCALES descendants and the family cemetery has been preserved.

Another son, JOHN, bought land on Beaver Island Creek (known in our area today as Double Creeks). His first wife was LYDIA McCLAREN. We know there were at least seven children in this family, one being a son PETER SCALES (1767-1821), who by 1800, had removed to Patrick County, Virginia. He was the father of RANDALL DUKE SCALES, the founder of Madison. ABSALOM SCALES, son of JOHN, married NANCY DALTON and migrated to Williamson County, Tennessee, that part that later became Rutherford County. Another son of JOHN was JOSEPH SCALES (1765-1832) who married NANCY ALLEY and resided in Stokes County. There are many descendants in the area today who descend from this JOSEPH, grandson of JOSEPH SR.

JAMES SCALES (1754-1833), son of JOSEPH SR., was devised part of the Beaver Island Creek tract, consisting of 500 acres. He married HENRIETTA MARIAH PHILLIPS in 1775. JAMES lived long enough to apply for a pension in 1832 for his service in the Revolution, which is on record in Washington, D.C. His children intermarried with the local CARDWELL and DALTON families. The family cemetery is located in present day Mayodan near Beaver Island Creek.

HENRY SCALES (1743-1818), son of JOSEPH SR., owned land in the County on Buffalo Island and Matrimony Creek, and his homeplace, located NE of Stoneville, is still standing and near the house is the family cemetery but only one tombstone has survived. It is hand carved and marks the grave of a son RICHARD who died 30 November 1798. HENRY and wife MARY were the parents of eleven children. They both left wills that are recorded in Rockingham County. There are still many local descendants of this family living in our county.

NATHANIEL SCALES (1756-1824), son of JOSEPH SR., first lived on the N side of the Dan River in what is now Deep Springs. He at one time owned the land on which Deep Springs Country Club is located.

Around 1800 he settled on Hogan's Creek in the Eastern part of the county. In 1777 he married ANN (NANCY) ALLEN, daughter of VALENTINE ALLEN. They had 10 children. NATHANIEL'S Will is recorded in Rockingham County. Of their children, NATHANIEL, JR., died single in 1821, JOSEPH married ANN WILLIAMS in 1802 and migrated to Mississippi. SALLY married WILLIAM NEAL and moved to Giles County, Tennessee; NANCY married MR. WATTS and settled in Madison County, Alabama; HENRY married NANCY HILL in 1807 and this couple also moved to Madison County, Alabama; MARY (POLLY) married JOSEPH MCCAIN in 1807 and moved to Missouri; ELIZABETH married JOHN T. WRIGHT and continued to reside in Rockingham County; ALFRED MOORE SCALES married MARTHA A. MARTIN in 1829 and removed to Texas; JAMES M. SCALES married ELIZABETH P. LESURER in 1825 and lived in Rockingham County and DR. ROBERT HENRY SCALES married JANE WATT BETHEL in 1824 and lived in Rockingham County. They were the parents of GOV. ALFRED MOORE SCALES (1827-1892).

THOMAS SCALES, son of JOSEPH, SR., died and left a will here recorded in 1819. He resided on Beaver Island Creek, west of Madison. He left a widow, FANNY and five children. This family later removed to Williamson County, Tennessee after the death of THOMAS.

Another son mentioned in the will of JOSEPH SR., was DAVID SCALES who was living in Pittsylvania County, Virginia by 1783. He sold his land there in 1796 and apparently soon afterwards moved away. Nothing else is known about him.

Very little is known about the daughters of JOSEPH, SR. Six are mentioned in his will: SARAH who married JOHN DAVIS; HANNAH who married WILLIAM OWINGS; ANN who married a MR. HILL; AGNES who married WILLIAM HUNT ALLEN; MARY who married a MR. RICE and BETSEY SCALES.

This JOSEPH SCALES SR., was certainly one of our first settlers to move into what is now Rockingham County, having settled here 228 years ago. He and his wife apparently lived on the 200 acre tract located near the area where the Smith River runs into the Dan River. MARY, his widow was devised this tract at his death for her use during her lifetime. At her death in 1804 this tract went to son NATHANIEL. Even though we feel JOSEPH and MARY are buried on this tract, no cemetery has been found.

LINDA CARDWELL VERNON, who has done extensive research on the SCALES family is a 5th great-granddaughter of JOSEPH SCALES, SR.

EDEN

(It must be stated here again that MRS. LINDA CARDWELL VERNON is perhaps the most knowledgeable person on the "SCALES" families in North Carolina. This is but a miniscule bit of the family information that she has researched on this particular family in North Carolina, added to the fact that she is an expert genealogist and has travelled far and wide in pursuit of information on hundreds of families in her research.)

At this point we shall traverse back to the families of JOHN SCALES and LYDIA JANE McCLAREN to continue the "WALK" and enumerate their children with brief sketches of each and their children, and then enumerate all the information that we know on the families of JOSEPH HENRY SCALES and PETER SCALES, as they are the main lines of ancestry for which this volume is written.

LOOSE RECORDS 26 SEP 1842.

Deposition by NOAH SCALES- There was to be a prayer meeting at the Baptist Church at 4 O'clock and MARY G. SCALES sent a servant to my house for the loan of a horse to go to prayer meeting. She had caught a horse 3 or 4 times and JOAB SCALES turned the horse loose every time. I went with the boy to JOAB'S house to see him and his wife and accompany her to preaching. I rode up in the yard and asked his wife how times were and she said they were very bad. I asked her if she wanted to come to my house and she said she did. I told her she should leave or I would die on the spot by her side. By this time JOAB had come up and was very mad. I told him to cool off. He rode right up to me and fired a pistol within three feet distance at my head. I scuffled with him sometime and got him off his horse. I then whipped him with a cowhide as long as I could and made him set down until his wife and children got ready to start. I brought them to my house. JOAB acted as if he was going to get up and I picked up a piece of stave and told him I would knock his brains out if he went into the house. I pulled out my pistol and told him his life was in my hands, but had spared the rascal's life.

Deposition of young CLARK- JOAB SCALES got my father's pistol I told him where the balls were but did not see him load the pistol. I heard the shot of the pistol or gun.

Deposition of GEORGE CLARK- JOAB SCALES came to my house and got my pistol. It was loaded.

Deposition of MARY G. SCALES- NOAH SCALES came up in the yard. He told JOAB SCALES he wanted him to behave himself and if he did not he would make him. JOAB kept going toward NOAH and within a few steps I saw JOAB draw out his pistol and fire it at NOAH. Then NOAH made at him to get him off his nag and commenced whipping him with a cowhide after he got him off his nag. NOAH then drew his pistol and told JOAB to look at it, that he could have killed him had he wanted to. He put the pistol back in his pocket and picked up a piece of heading and told him he had a good mind to beat him to death. I told NOAH not to whip him anymore.

JOAB SCALES' Deposition- I rode up in my yard. I had been threatened for a man to come and cowhide me without a cause. When I got near the house NOAH SCALES turned and made at me with a cowhide. I had a pistol, not knowing whither it was loaded or not. I didn't shoot with the intention of killing him. He caught my nag by the bridle and jerked me off and commenced whipping me with his cowhide, stomped me and drew his pistol and presinted at me and would not let me go in the house. He took up a board and told me if I did not sit down at the smoke house door, he held the board in a _____ position and asked my wife if he should beat me over the head with it. She said no. He made me sit there until he got out of the yard. 26 SEP 1842.

The reader will probably find this most interesting.

JOSEPH HENRY SCALES lived on a Plantation in the Northeastern Quadrant of Stokes County North Carolina. His Plantation was known as "SANDY RIDGE". This is the origin of the name of the community of Sandy Ridge in Stokes Co., NC. Prior to this, the area was known as "Crooked Creek".

The following article is from MEMORIAL VIRGINIA MILITARY INSTITUTE by CHARLES D. WALKER, beginning on page 461.

JAMES R. SCALES,
OF PATRICK COUNTY, VIRGINIA; CAPTAIN, COMPANY "H," 54TH VIRGINIA
INFANTRY.

JAMES ROBERT SCALES was born in Patrick County, Virginia on the 23rd of August, 1842. He was the son of ABSALOM and ELIZA CARTER SCALES, and was descended from an old and influential family, of which several members served in some capacity or other in the Confederate Army, one commanding a Brigade of North Carolina Troops in the "Army of Northern Virginia," while others were field, line or staff officers.

Receiving his preliminary education at Germanton, North Carolina, and at Dr. Wilson's Preparatory School for the University of North Carolina, at Melville, Alamance County, he was appointed and reported for duty as a cadet of the Virginia Military Institute in July, 1860. Pursuing his studies until the following April, he went with the Corps to Richmond, and remained there in the discharge of his duty, drilling recruits, until the middle of July, when the Corps was disbanded. Subsequently Cadet SCALES was induced by Judge W. R. STAPLES to go to Southwest Virginia and assist in preparing the 54th Virginia Infantry for the field. When he had completed this work, and the 54th was ordered into active service, a Lieutenancy in the Regiment was proffered him; but he declined, and returning to his native county, he soon enlisted as a private in Captain (afterwards Colonel) PENN'S Company of the 42nd Virginia Infantry. He served with this command in the battles of Port Republic and McDowell, and also in the numerous skirmishes and combats that occurred in the valley during the Spring and Summer of 1862.

At the reorganization of the army in May, 1862, he was elected First Lieutenant of Company "H," 54th Virginia, but was unable to report for duty until late in the following July. His Regiment, forming a portion of MARSHALL'S Brigade, went with it into Kentucky in September, 1862, at the time General BRAGG invaded that state with the Army of Tennessee. Returning to Virginia in November following after having marched over eight hundred miles, Lieutenant SCALES'S Regiment was ordered to Richmond in December, and about the 1st of January, 1863, was assigned to Brigadier-General PRYOR, commanding forces on the Blackwater. While here, the Battle of "KELLY'S Farm," near Suffolk, occurred, in which the 54th took conspicuous part. In March, 1863, the Regiment went again to the Department of East Tennessee, arriving at Knoxville early in April, and remained in that vicinity during a greater part of the Summer, occasionally repelling raids, was also at Tullahoma when it was evacuated by the Army of Tennessee.

In August, 1863, the forces occupying the Department of East Tennessee were organized into a Corps and placed under the command of General S. B. BUCKNER. From this time the 54th Virginia became a part of the Army of Tennessee.

At the Battle of Chicamauga, Lieutenant SCALES distinguished himself by conspicuous gallantry. He was at that time Acting Adjutant of his Regiment, and continued to do so until the following November, when upon the resignation of his Captain, he was promoted Captain of Company "H," 54th Virginia Infantry. This position he held until the close of the war.

Captain SCALES was present at the Battle of Missionary Ridge, and bore a conspicuous and gallant part in trying to avert the disaster of that day, and afterwards in covering the retreat to Dalton, Georgia.

At the reorganization of the army, by General JOHNSTON, in the Spring of 1864, the 54th Virginia was thrown into HOOD'S Corps. The retrograde from Dalton to Atlanta was almost one continued battle. The 54th Virginia lost heavily both at Resaca and New Hope Church. In all the series of engagements in which Captain SCALES participated during this campaign, his comrades attest that he bore himself as a true and brave soldier. Taking part in the arduous and disastrous campaign made by General HOOD into Tennessee during the Winter of 1864-65, he was taken sick, and received a furlough at Tupelo, Mississippi, in February, 1865. For four long years he had been a brave and faithful soldier, uncomplaining mid the heat of Summer and cold of Winter, unflinching in the storm of battle and the weariness of the march, and now, when rest, bitter as it was, was coming to his worn-out comrades, he falls prey to the insidious attack of disease. Soon after he reached his home he became a confirmed invalid, Phthisis Pulmonalis of an exaggerated character having been induced by the hardships and exposure he had undergone. Lingered until the 9th of November 1866, he died, aged twenty-four years.

From boyhood his distinguishing traits were independence in thought and action, being always governed by a high sense of honor in his intercourse with his fellow-men.

Captain SCALES was always a favorite with his comrades-in-arms, and had the unlimited confidence of his superior officers. (End, PAGE 463.)

MADISON'S 324 ACRES SOLD FOR $2,500 IN 1810

By LINDA VERNON and HASSEL GANN

PATRICK COUNTY, VIRGINIA

In 1751 ROBERT JONES JR. of Surry County, Va., a well-known land speculator of that day, bought a 1,000 acre tract in North Carolina from LORD GRANVILLE that was situated on both sides of the Dan River. Today the Town of Madison is located on part of that tract.

It was in 1758 that JONES sold this tract to JOHN HUNTER SR. of Albemarle County, Va., for the sum of 85 Pounds of Virginia currency. By 1782 HUNTER had moved to the Dan River area of North Carolina and continued to buy other large tracts of land from LORD GRANVILLE. He died in late 1777 or early 1778, leaving a Will probated in Guilford County in February of 1778. In his Will he named one son, EDWARD and three daughters, ALLY TATE, ELIZABETH WALKER and SARAH MAY, and a sister, JANE MARTIN, and several grandchildren.

In 1771 JOHN HUNTER sold 500 acres, the Eastern side of his original 1,000 acre tract to GEORGE JUDE of Cumberland, Va. Ten years later, in 1781, GEORGE JUDE and his wife ANNA, of Goochland County, Va., sold this tract, situated on both sides of the Dan River to EDMOND BREWER of Guilford County for the sum of 1500 pounds.

In 1782 EDMOND BREWER and his wife SARAH sold 200 acres of this land to ROBERT BAINS. This was the land that was situated on the South side of the Dan River, across the river from where the Town of Madison stands today. The land was sold for the sum of 150 pounds. It was not until 1786 that the BREWERS sold their land on the North side of the river to JOSEPH SCALES of Henry County, Va. During that time they probably had a homestead overlooking the Dan River in the area which later was to become the Town of Madison.

JOSEPH SCALES died in Virginia in 1796 and devised the Dan River tract to his two sons, JOSEPH H. and ROBERT SCALES. The SCALES brothers sold the tract, 234 ACRES, for the [sum] of $2,500 in 1810 to their cousin PETER SCALES of Patrick County, Va.

PETER SCALES, son of JOHN, and Grandson of JOSEPH SCALES, the first SCALES in our area, had earlier resided in Rockingham County where he had owned several tracts of land. He married MAGGIE WALKER, daughter of JAMES WALKER of Rockingham County. By 1797 he had moved to Patrick County, Va. PETER SCALES and his wife were the parents of nine children: ELIZABETH, who married PHILLIP T. HAY, JENNIE, who married JEREMIAH FIELDS; SALLIE, who married JOHN SCALES; PLEASANT D., who married CHARLOTTE G. DALTON; DR. ABSALOM W., who married ELEANOR COYLE; NATHANIEL who married JANE SCALES; JOHN PINKNEY who married JUDITH H. SHELTON; JAMES WARREN, who married MARY A. L. MEBANE, and RANDAL DUKE SCALES, who married MARY DEARING.

On the 12th of May 1818, PETER SCALES Deeded the 234 acres on the North side of the Dan River to his son RANDAL DUKE SCALES for the sum of $2,500. Soon afterward, RANDAL DUKE SCALES had 96 half-acre lots laid off along designated streets, and on the 3rd of June, the first lots in the Town of Madison were sold. Those buying lots that day were POWHALTON MAY, JOHN GUY, WILLIAM FEWELL, ZACHARIAH FEWELL, THOMAS SMITH, LOUIS PEEPLES, JOHN SCALES, JOHN MENZIES and JAMES E. GALLAWAY.

OLD RICHMOND

THE FAMILIES OF NATHANIEL SCALES AND JANE SCALES

(RICHMOND TOWN)

(The following is from RECORDS OF THE MORAVIANS IN NORTH CAROLINA, 1752-1775, Volume 2, Edited by ADELAIDE L. FRIES and published in 1925, found in the North Carolina Room of the Forsyth County Public Library, Winston-Salem, North Carolina. Excerpt begins on Page 647 through 649 and a Map from Page 634.) Your writer includes this information in regard to the purchase of the property in Old Richmond Township, Forsyth Co., NC, by NATHANIEL SCALES. I capitalized all names.

"In 1784 MARTIN ARMSTRONG, JOHN SNEAD, SAMUEL CUMMINS, MALCOLM CURRY, and JOB MARTIN, were "Commissioners and Trustees for the Town of Richmond"; In 1790 JOHN RANDLEMAN had taken the place of JOHN SNEAD.

In the N. W. square the 1/2 LOT No. 1 was sold by SAMUEL CUMMINS to WILLIAM HUGHLETT in Sept. 1790, for L50:-Presumably it had a house on it for in January, 1790, HUGHLETT had bought nine other lots from the Town Commissioners for a total price of L18. Of these Nos. 14, 15, 16, 21, 22, 23 were in the N. W. Square, and measured 144 Sq. poles each. They are mentioned by number only, and therefore cannot be plotted. Lot No. 13, a Half-Lot, was sold by the Commissioners to ADLEY OSBORN in May, 1780, and was sold again by the Commissioners to JOHN T. LONGINO in April, 1786. The CUMMINS lot ran "To Corner of COL. JOHN ARMSTRONG'S house" (a).

In the N. E. Square, in 1783, JOHN RANDLEMAN took a deed to Lot No. 1, "Inside the diamond, the lot on which JOHN SNEAD lived," which at its North end cornered with WILLIAM SHEPPARD (b). RANDLEMAN also had Nos. 11 and 12 in the same Square. In 1807 JAMES FRANKLIN sold to ENOCH FRANKLIN 103 1/2 Acres, "On the North-West side of Feeless Creek, with lots in Richmond,"-The 17 lots were Numbered 18, 19, 20, 21, 22, 25, 27, 28, 29, 30, 31, 32, 33, 34, 35, 36, which were evidently on the North side of Broad Street, outside the town land, for the courses indicate that the line of the tract crossed the creek, and ran South-East about to the dividing line between Nos. 13 and 14, in the S. E. Square thence West to the town land, and North on its East line to its corner.

In the S. W. Square, THOMAS POINDEXTER took Deed to Nos. 9 and 16 in 1787; and WILLIAM HUGHLETT took No. 1 in 1790. POINDEXTER PAID L4: for his two lots.

In the S. E. Square, JOHN RANDLEMAN took Deed to Nos. 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, 10, 11, 14, 15, in 1783; and WILLIAM HUGHLETT took No. 1 in 1790.

What other lots were sold, and which of these may have been resold, does not appear, nor is it known how many houses were built, but tradition says there were about twenty houses in the village when the end came. MR. SPEAS says that in deep ploughing he turned up a number of piles of stones, mixed with ashes, evidently the remains of fire-places, and that while there were two or three on the South side of Broad Street, most of them were to the North of that line. That there was uncertainty about the title to some of the lots is indicated by a clause in the 1822 Deed of JESSE KERBY to JACOB CONRAD, already referred to as covering the N. W. and S. W. Squares, wherein there occurs the sentence: "But if any part of said tract should be lawfully claimed it is reserved to the proper owner." As has been said the Deed from WILLIAM SHEPPARD to EDMUND KERBY, in 1789 (B), reserved the lots sold to the Commissioners for the Town of Richmond; But the Deed from JESSE KERBY to JACOB CONRAD, in 1822, for the same 700 Acres, makes no reference to the exception of any lots.

The division of Surry County in 1789, and removal of the Surry County seat to Rockford, and the building of a Court-House for Stokes County at Germanton, ruined the speculative chances of the owners of property in Richmond; The last recorded sale of a "Town Lot" being in 1790. About 1822 JACOB CONRAD bought up the tract B, the West end of C, Beginning at a line extending the East Line of B to the Town Fork Road, and a small part of the South End of G. In 1844, at the request of CONRAD'S heirs, the JACOB CONRAD Tract, 1200 ACRES, was sold by FRANCIS FRIES, Clerk and Master in Equity, and it was bought by NATHANIEL SCALES; The Deed is recorded in Forsyth, though by date it belongs in Danbury, Stokes County, and it states that CONRAD had bought the land from KERBY, RANDLEMAN and FRANKLIN. It also indicates that at that time G. belonged to the RANDLEMAN family, and K to ISAAC HAUSER; In 1866 JOHN C. RANDLEMAN, TIM HAUSER, and POLLY SHEMEL are mentioned in E. on North Side of Town Fork Road, and SHEMEL in the East End of C. in 1866, the Estate of NATHANIEL SCALES was divided into four lots; Of these No. 1, which included a strip along the North Side of the Bethania Road, and therefore a majority of the house sites, was allotted to WASHINGTON PAYNE, in Trust for the six children of his first wife, an exchange investment of certain properties left in trust for her by her grandfather, JOSEPH SCALES. No. 2, also a part of the exchange investment, was allotted to MRS. JANE SCALES and her son PETER SCALES, and when PETER died WASHINGTON PAYNE bought this Lot No. 2, which was in two pieces, the larger lying South of the Bethania Road, and including the Court-House site. ANTHONY L. PAYNE inherited this Court-House Tract, and sold it to FRANCIS E. SPEAS, its present owner. The record of the SCALES Division is in Danbury, though by date it belongs in Winston.

The last reference to "Lots in Richmond" occurs in a Deed from ENOCH FRANKLIN to JACOB CONRAD, in August, 1830. Some time thereafter there came the appropriate and dramatic end of Richmond Town. Not often does an ending so appropriately fit the beginning! Jealousy, (PAGE 649) rivalry, and self-seeking at the beginning, accompanied by injustice toward a neighboring land-owner. Fifteen years a County Seat, but of those nine years of war, local as well as national, for there were many Tories along the Yadkin. Later chances for speculation spoiled by the division of the county. A hamlet sinking in character, and in the esteem of neighbors, until current gossip said: "If you want to go to Hell you need not go further than Old Richmond." And then a cyclone,-a cyclone so intense that it literally swept the wicked little place off the face of the earth, blowing the Court-House door yards away up the hill, and scattering shingles as far as Danbury and Germanton, if tradition may be believed! And the town so destroyed was never rebuilt. Donnaha lies at the foot of the hill, but it has no direct connection with the past, and what was the center of Richmond Town is now a field of wheat, its only residents a pair of partridges, who fled at the approach of visitors and refused to show their home!

OLD RICHMOND

6/9. NATHANIEL SCALES, (son of PETER SCALES and ONEY WALKER,) w born 16 MAY 1801 in Patrick Co., Va. He died 8 MAR 1864 in Forsyth Co. NC. His place of burial is unknown at this time. He married JANE SCALES, (daughter of JOSEPH HENRY SCALES and NANCY ALLEY). Their date and place of marriage is unknown at this time. (The 6/9 Notation by his name above indicates that he was the sixth of nine children in the family of PETER SCALES and ONEY WALKER. See "PATRICK COUNTY, VIRGINIA" chapter in this book).

3/6. JANE SCALES, (daughter of JOSEPH HENRY SCALES and NANCY ALLEY,) was born 13 DEC 1803 (FB) in Stokes Co., NC. She died 17 NOV 1878 in Forsyth Co., NC. Her place of burial is unknown at this time. It should be noted here that NATHANIEL and JANE were first cousins, their fathers were brothers. (The 3/6 Notation by her name above indicates that she was the third of six children in the family of JOSEPH HENRY SCALES and NANCY ALLEY. See "SANDY RIDGE" chapter in this book.)

The 1870 Federal Census for North Carolina, Forsyth County, Old Richmond District lists the following for JANE SCALES. She is living in the household of GIDEON and MARY MOORE.

DWELLING #198 JANE SCALES 64 W F AT HOME

At her death, WASHINGTON PAYNE, her son-in-law, qualified as the Administrator of her Estate in 1878 and at the conclusion of the Estate of NATHANIEL SCALES, her husband, you will find information on her Estate.

THE piece of paper writing to the right was found in the possessions of MRS. MARGARET LOUISA BAKER BEAN JOHNSON by MRS. RUTH SCOTT POINDEXTER of East Bend, NC. It is believed to have been written by JOSEPH ABSALOM ALBERT SCALES, at the time of his mother, JANE SCALES' death. #8#

OLD RICHMOND

Forsyth County was formed from a division of Stokes County, NC, in 1849. Court Sessions were held in the Town of Salem before the completion of the Forsyth County Courthouse in the town square of Winston, NC in 1851. I have located the following entries for NATHANIEL SCALES within the Court Minutes of the Forsyth County Court of Pleas and Quarter Sessions. (Court was held quarterly during the year.)

JUNE TERM 1850-

PAGE 92. NATHANIEL SCALES SERVED WITH ALBERT BUTNER, ESQ., AND WILLIAM ANDERSON AS JUDGES OF THE ELECTION FOR SHERIFF IN SQUIRE SPEAS'S [DISTRICT.] [I would imagine that these were different "Districts" or "Precincts" as we know them today and they served as Judges during the election of Sheriff. There was no further explanation in the minutes in regard to this.]

The estate left by NATHANIEL SCALES can be found in File X-777 in the office of The Clerk Of Superior Court Of Forsyth County, NC. It is located on Film Number 523, Page 1491. However, I must say that the machine on which the film can be read cannot produce a copy of the papers and the film is marred by streaks. Hence, I asked my expert genealogist friend, MRS. LINDA CARDWELL VERNON of Stoneville, NC, to search for the original papers in the North Carolina State Archives in Raleigh, NC, and she sent to me copies of the estate papers gleaned from her search. The following information is taken from those copies, which were excellent.

A good look at what was on a family farm or plantation in the 1860s is reason enough and certainly most interesting for the following listing of the personal property sold at sale. It also tells us who was in the immediate area as far as neighbors and some relatives as I feel those persons purchasing the items were his close neighbors and relatives. You will also see a notation, "Freeman and Freewoman" by some names and with the surname you will see, it certainly indicates that they had been slaves on a plantation prior to the end of the Civil

OLD RICHMOND

War and some were probably owned by NATHANIEL and JOSEPH SCALES.

DR. NATHANIEL MACON SCALES, (his son,) qualified as Administrator of his father's estate on the 8th day of March 1864. NATHANIEL MACON SCALES, WILL FLYNT, WM. BARROW, JOHN LAURENCE and J. M. RICHMOND signed a bond in the sum of Eight Thousand Dollars in order for DR. NATHANIEL MACON SCALES to qualify as Administrator.

What is confusing to the writer at this point are papers marked X-777 in the Estate dated 12 FEB 1864 as follows: (It appears that NATHANIEL SCALES did have some sort of paper writing purporting to be a Will, but the paper writing was not proved by the court to be his Will, hence the settlement of his property by an Administration instead of distribution through the normal process of a Will. The following is marked X-777 in the files.)

N. M. SCALES, ADMINISTRATOR
 BY WILL. FLYNT, ATTORNEY

A check of the 1850 Census Records show that ISAAC HAUSER and CHARLES SCOTT were his immediate neighbors, along with SOLOMON SPAIN-HOUR, JACOB BUTNER, JOHN H. RANDLEMAN, GILLAM NEWSOM, JONATHAN SPEASE, JACOB LONG and Squire J. WALLER.

And a check of the 1860 Census Records shows that ISAAC HAUSER was still his next door neighbor, along with other nearby neighbors, ISRAEL SPEASE, JONATHAN SPEASE, JOHN SPRINKLE, JOHN C. HEAD, CHARLES SCOTT, JACOB BUTNER, JACOB SHAMEL and some of these were buyers at the Administrator's Sale, as you will note by the names listed.

The following are copies of Estate papers found at the North Carolina State Archives in Raleigh, NC, relating to the Estate of JANE SCALES, who died 17 NOV 1878. WASHINGTON PAYNE, her son-in-law, qualified as the Administrator of her Estate.

The Bible was apparently passed on to the family of JOSEPH ABSALOM ALBERT SCALES and after the deaths of LOUISA ANN and JOSEPH A. in 1911, the Bible was sold at public auction. It was bought by NATHANIEL'S great granddaughter, SARAH ELIZABETH JANE BAKER SCOTT and her daughter RUTH SCOTT POINDEXTER received the Bible from her.

THE CENSUS

Let's take a look at the Census records as another "Step along our WALK," as a source of information giving us a look at how families were made up, who they were, what they owned, what their crops and livestock were, and their occupations. The following is only a tiny slice of a glimpse at life in the year 1850. I hope you will at some time in the future go to our Public Library and read a roll of microfilm enumerating the Census records as it will show you where each family lived, who their neighbors were and many other interesting facts and tidbits!

The date is June 1, 1850. The place is in the Old Richmond Township of Forsyth County, NC. The Census Taker has come to the house and more than likely NATHANIEL SCALES is sitting in his front yard talking to the Census Taker and giving him the information that is being asked about his family and farm, or plantation as they were called then.

THE 1850 FEDERAL CENSUS OF FORSYTH COUNTY, NORTH CAROLINA "RICHMOND DISTRICT"

		AGE	SEX	OCCUPATION	VALUE	BORN
1254/1269	NATHANIEL SCALES	49	M	PLANTER	3550	VA
	JANE -	46	F			NC
	JOSEPH A.-	23	M	FARMER	750	VA
	LOUISA A.-	26	F			VA
	NATHANIEL M.-	11	M			NC
	PETER H. -	6	M			NC

From the above we determine this: Their Household Number was 1254 in the record and their Family Number was 1269. It listed NATHANIEL SCALES as the head of the house by virtue of his listing first. His age was 49 at the time, he was a Planter. He valued his farm at $3,550.00 and he was born in Virginia.

It indicates that NANCY ELIZABETH S. SCALES, his daughter, had already married WASHINGTON PAYNE and moved away....not very far though as they were listed as being Household #1246, which was just 9 farms away, according to my count on the Census Pages that listed the farms in order of sequence as the Census Taker came to them.

Because we know that ELLENOR O. SCALES was born in 1829, she had already died and of course would not be listed on this Census as one of his children.

It also indicates that JOSEPH ABSALOM ALBERT SCALES was already married but still living with his parents with his wife, LOUISA ANN SWANN, whom he had been married to for only about six months. It lists his occupation as a farmer and perhaps his father had given him a part of the farm by then and it's value was $750.00. The Census does list the birth "State" for LOUISA A., his wife as Virginia, but she was born in Caswell Co., NC.

OLD RICHMOND

The Slave Schedules in the Census only listed the owners names and the ages and sex of the Slaves. NATHANIEL SCALES owned the following Slaves:

OWNER	AGE	SEX	AGE	SEX
NATHANIEL SCALES	73	M	22	M
	60	F	18	M
	38	F	20	F
	36	M	15	F
	36	M	13	M
	32	F	9	M
	26	M	3	F
	24	M	1	M
	24	M	7/12	M

From the above you can see that NATHANIEL SCALES had 18 slaves on his plantation, ranging in age from a 73 year old man to a baby that was just 7 months old. By the time of the 1860 Census, this would not change very much as you will see from that extract of his slave holdings, even with the rumblings of war not far in the future.

The 1850 Agricultural Schedule of the Census contained 46 categories and from the Census the following is taken for the plantation of NATHANIEL SCALES:

200 ACRES "IMPROVED" [probably under cultivation.]
 1000 ACRES "UNIMPROVED" [the remainder of his property.]
 3550 CASH VALUE OF FARM [the value of his farm, $3,550.00]
 150 VALUE OF FARMING IMPLEMENTS AND MACHINERY, [$150.00]
 6 HORSES
 1 ASS OR MULE
 8 MILCH COWS [note the spelling of "milk"cow!]
 4 WORKING OXEN
 10 OTHER CATTLE
 50 SWINE
 500 VALUE OF LIVESTOCK [$500.00]
 50 BUSHELS OF WHEAT
 212 BUSHELS OF RYE
 2250 BUSHELS OF INDIAN CORN
 150 BUSHELS OF OATS
 40 BUSHELS OF PEAS AND BEANS
 40 BUSHELS OF IRISH POTATOES
 50 BUSHELS OF SWEET POTATOES
 150 LBS. OF BUTTER
 4 TONS OF HAY
 90 VALUE OF HOME MADE MANUFACTURES [$90.00]
 164 VALUE OF SLAUGHTERED ANIMALS [$164.00]

	PETER H.	17	M
	EMILY SAWYER	25	F	F
	HARRISON	4	M	F
	AUGUSTIN	2	M	F

As you can see from the above in ten years, NATHANIEL'S real estate had jumped considerably in value and his personal property had increased tremendously, by virtue of the value of his slave holdings. His son JOSEPH and wife, LOUISA were listed in Household #1853, a short distance away.

His son, NATHANIEL MACON SCALES had become a Doctor and his youngest son, PETER H. SCALES was still with him.

We also note that a free black woman was in the household with her two small children. (Note the "F" by EMILY SAWYER and her two children's names, indicating that they were "free.")

In the 1850 Census he had listed 18 slaves and on this 1860 listing the number had dropped to 17 and he had three slave houses on his property.

OWNER	NO.	AGE	SEX	NO.	AGE	SEX
NATHANIEL SCALES	1	90	M	1	12	F

The 1860 Agricultural Schedule of the Census contained 46 categories and from the Census the following is taken for the plantation of NATHANIEL SCALES:

200 ACRES "IMPROVED"	[probably under cultivation.]
650 ACRES "UNIMPROVED"	[the remainder of his property.]

1 LB. BEESWAX
15 LBS. OF HONEY
75 VALUE OF MANUFACTURES [$75.00]
315 VALUE OF ANIMALS SLAUGHTERED [$315.00]

From this listing, we see that NATHANIEL had disposed of 350 acres of land since 1850. The value of his farm had increased from $3,550.00 to $4,500.00. That his wheat production had jumped enormously from 50 to 950 bushels. That his corn production had dipped over 50%. A big difference was in tobacco, because he had listed none in 1850 and he was now producing 2800 lbs.

It appears that folks didn't list any wine in their listings with the Census Takers, but after his death and at the time of the disposal of his property, items of "wine" were included as sold at sale.

(From comments gathered by people that I talked with in regard to these statistics, it indicated that NATHANIEL SCALES was a person of considerable wealth for those times.) The fact that he had three slave houses indicated much farm labor from these people on his plantation in raising the different crops.

CLAUDE CECIL AMOS guides a group of relatives outside the home of ROBERT PAYNE at Sandy Ridge, NC. The house is in remarkable condition and well taken care for it's age. Underneath the siding is the original brick similiar to the style of Moravians in Winston-Salem, NC. #1#

See also the WILL OF JOSEPH SCALES OF STOKES COUNTY, NORTH CAROLINA in regard to his daughter JANE, above. The Will is transcribed in this chapter.

An Obituary passed on to me from MR. J. W. TATUM of Winston-Salem, NC, on 13 MAR 1987, came from THE WESTERN SENTINEL dated 15 FEB 1923 entitled:

AGED NEGRO DIES

ABRAM SCALES, an aged colored man, died recently at his home near Tobaccoville, whose age is said to have been from 112 to 120 years. "UNCLE" ABRAM was a slave, belonging to the late NATHANIEL SCALES, of the Sandy Ridge section of Stokes County. Nine or more years ago, it is said that ABRAM was given to a daughter by MR. SCALES upon her marriage to WASHINGTON PAYNE, who moved into the Donnaha and Tobaccoville section soon after their marriage. ABRAM has continued a peaceful industrious and law-abiding citizen since his freedom, and all who knew him in both races were his friends. He is survived by his wife, who is about ninety-five years old. They resided on their little farm about four miles South of Tobaccoville.

# # # #

[In the NATHANIEL SCALES Administrator's Report of Sale in January of 1866 and filed at the March Term 1866 Term of Court in 1866, there is listed on page eight: ABR SCALES, (Freedman), who purchased a Bed Sted for the sum of 13 cents. The "daughter", undoubtedly was NANCY ELIZABETH S. SCALES who had married WASHINGTON PAYNE.]

[A further check of cemetery records in Forsyth County indicate that ABRAM SCALES was born in 1808 and died 23 DEC 1922. He is buried at Center Grove AME Zion Church at Tobaccoville, Forsyth County, NC. It is believed that his wife's name was MALINDY and that she was born in 1832 and died 18 JAN 1926, according to cemetery records and is buried in this same church cemetery. JRS]

Following is the Will of JOSEPH HENRY SCALES. Copy of 6 page original was obtained from the Register of Deeds, Stokes Co., NC, in July 1984. I transcribed the Will during that same month also. I spaced each "ITEM" so that the Will would be more easy to decipher in noting the individual bequests and also capitalized all names. (comments of the writer follow the will.)

(Notes and thoughts on Will of JOSEPH HENRY SCALES dated 15 JULY 1831 and recorded in Stokes County, North Carolina.)

Apparently JOSEPH SCALES thought more of his son ABSOLUM SCALES and trusted him more than either of his sons-in-law who were PETER HAY and NATHANIEL SCALES, who was also his nephew.

Although he appointed his son ABSOLUM SCALES and his son-in-law PETER HAY as his Executors, the writer believes he appointed his son-in-law, PETER HAY as a kind gesture for his daughter SALLY.

From the directions specifically given to ABSOLUM SCALES for the maintenance, care and support of his sister JANE SCALES (who married NATHANIEL SCALES, a cousin,) and her children, it appears that ABSOLUM was to protect his sister's interest in the Estate of JOSEPH SCALES and keep it clear of all harm of the creditors of NATHANIEL SCALES.

This may have been brought about by the feeling of one relative toward another even though their children intermarried and the father wishing to protect his own children's interest by setting up this Trust for his daughter or that he thought that JANE SCALES' husband already owned enough and did not wish to contribute any more to it as he was doing for SALLY who married PETER HAY.

It is also thought by this writer that by the use of the explicit language in the Will relating to the security of JANE SCALES that JOSEPH SCALES, her father did not like NATHANIEL SCALES at all and probably his own brother PETER SCALES as well and this was perhaps his method of showing his dislike for him and his brother or that JANE'S husband had caused some sort of misery to his daughter and was using the terms of his Will to alienate his son-in-law, NATHANIEL from having a part or portion of his estate.

Your writer tends to think the cause of the construction of the Will was due to the above due to the date of the Will, which was only eleven months before his death.
